Teams now one Lap ahead of record

New York, Dec. 5.—More than a mile ahead of the former record, 14 of the 15 teams that started in the annual six-day bicycle race at 12:01 o'clock this morning, were this afternoon fighting it out in Madison Square Garden.

The killing sprint which put Gorman and Verlinden out of the race, started between five and six o'clock in the morning. It lasted fifteen minutes and was startingly fast.

The first real sprint started at 2 o'clock when "Paddy" Hehr shot out from the bunch and tried to steal a lap. He had a fifty yards lead before Freddie Hill took after him. Changing pace with Rutt, the rest of the riders managed finally to overhaul the Australian.

Eddie Root also tried to steal a lap, but was unsuccessful, his former team mate, Joe Fogler, overhauled him.

Bobby Walthour is reported in bad shape and is not expected to finish the week. His partner, Ivor Lawson, however, is in wonderful condition and might manage to carry him through by doing the bulk of the riding.

At 10 o'clock the fourteen teams in the race had covered 239 miles four laps. They were then one mile and seven laps ahead of the former record.

New York, Dec. 5.—The six-day bicycle race has in its glory again. Camped in Madison Square Garden, several thousand of him saw the riders get away on the long grind at one-minute past twelve o'clock this morning. Many will remain in the garden until the last man has crossed the finish line next Saturday night.

Fifteen teams are entered in the 142-hour continuous affair, the teams alternating so that, under the law, no rider shall be on the track more than twelve hours in twenty-four. This law, framed for the old six-day races, when one man rode for twenty and twenty-two hours a day and finished the week a mental and physical wreck, is adhered to, to a sufficient extent to keep from working harm to the riders.

The race appears this year to have attained added popularity, judging from the number of fans who gathered in the historic building long before the midnight hour.

At 11:30 o'clock the thirty riders were called to the track in pairs and introduced to the spectators, each team making a lap of the saucer track, waving their national flags. It was exactly 12:01 a. m. this morning when "Big Tim" Sullivan fired the starting pistol and sent fifteen riders away on the start of the long grind. The race is to finish at one minute after ten o'clock next Saturday night.

The rules provide that the race shall not be stopped for the sprint races or motor-paced events that have interrupted in the past.

The following is the official list of starters, together with the titles given them by the race management:

ten, Davaport, Iowa, and Lloyd on, New York, and Alfred Halstead, Sacramento.

American-Danish team—Frank Galvin, New York, and Norman Anderson, Copenhagen.

German-Holland team—Walter Rutt, Berlin, and John Stol, Amsterdam.

French-Belgian team—Achille Germain, France and Francois Verlinden, Belgium.

Kangaroo team—Patrick O'Sullivan, Hehr, Australia, and Alfred Goulet, Australia.

Western team—Worthington L. Mitten, Davenport, Iowa, and Lloyd Thomas, San Francisco.

Pony team—George Wiley, New York and Percy Lawrence, San Francisco.

French team—Leon Georget, France, and Julian Pouchos, France.

Australian team—E. A. Pye, Australia, and Gordon Walker, Australia.

International team—Floyd A. McFarland, San Jose, California, and Jack Clarke, Melbourne, Australia.

Irish-American team—James E. Moran, Chelsea, Massachusetts, and E. E. Root, Boston.

Dixie-Mormon team—Bobby Walthour, Atlanta, Georgia, and Ivor Lawson, Salt Lake City, Utah.

New York-Boston team—Joe Fogler, Brooklyn, and Fred Hill, Boston.

Hub team—Elmer Collins, Boston and Drobach, Boston.

Native son team—Fred C. West, San Francisco, and Walter Demara, San Francisco.

The favorites are Rutt and Stol, Fogler and Hill, McFarland and Clarke, Root and Moran, and Hehr and Goulet.

New York, Dec. 5.—The 8 o'clock first team to quit was the French-Belgian team, composed of Germain and Verlinden, which dropped out at 8:06 this morning, after completing 187 miles, six laps. At the time they left the track the foreigners were a mile behind.

One team, hopelessly in the ruck, had been called off the track and ordered out of the race. This was the team of Germain and Verlinden.

The race early developed into a series of half-raising sprints, a number of the teams showing plainly their desire to kill off the weaker riders.

At 1 o'clock the fourteen teams were still tied, having covered 239 miles, six laps, at this time.

At noon the fourteen teams remaining were tied, having covered 271 miles, six laps. This is one mile and one lap ahead of the former record.

At 2 o'clock the teams were all bunched, having covered 315 miles, two laps.

Uncle Joe Rode; Champ Walked.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Plowing through two miles of slush and in the teeth of a steady storm, Champ Clark walked to the Capitol today.

When the stalwart Missourian reached the house he was well sprinkled with wet snow. He hurriedly brushed himself off, threw aside his great coat and hat hurried to the to the floor where he was received with tremendous applause.

Uncle Joe Cannon drove up to the Capitol, warm and cozy, in his electrically heated limousine.

No snow flakes of all the myriads that filled the air touched the immaculate costume of Vice President Sherman. He was safely sheltered in the luxurious automobile furnished him at the government's expense, rolling up to the Senate chamber entrance a few minutes before noon.

Fixed Status.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Holding that eight-year-old Isabel Wall, who has one-sixteenth negro blood in her veins, is not entitled to admission to the Brookland public school, Chief Justice Shepard, of the district court of appeals, fixed the racial status for school children within the District of Columbia. The court virtually held that any child that has any appreciable admixture of negro blood, regardless of the proportion, is a "colored person."

From Ninth Story.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 5.—Adeline Aurora, twenty, a coat finisher leaped from a ninth-story window in the textile building where she had been employed this morning and was fatally injured. She had lost her position Saturday but had been reinstated this morning. Worry over the loss of her work is supposed to have made her despondent. Other girls saw her hanging by her hands from the window ledge but could not reach her in time.

HITCHCOCK EMPLOYING

Too Much Economy And the Result is the Blocking of The Mails.

By United Press Wire.
Cleveland, Dec. 5.—Postmaster General Hitchcock's economy program is playing havoc with the Christmas mails, according to postoffice and railroad postal employees here.

For the first time in many years, the postoffice department has failed to authorize the employment of men on the extra list to aid in handling the tremendous rush of business in the railway and city postal services. More than this, the force of men at work now on the railway mail cars is below the normal establishment of ordinary seasons, for the amount of overtime work required has placed scores of men on the sick list, according to the employees affected.

From fifty to seventy-five men, heretofore employed in the holiday season, are missing on the New York-Chicago run over the New York Central lines alone. This division is handled by Superintendent Clyde M. Reed, of Cleveland.

"It has been the practice for some years," Reed said today, "to allow extra men during the holiday period when the regular force was not able to do the work. The department is saving its expenses very closely this year and I am unable to say just what may be done with regard to this particular matter."

According to the postal employees, however, the department has ordered that no more men be hired, and has indicated to the division superintendents its desire that part of the regular force be laid off at once, if it can be done.

"It occasionally happens," says Reed, "that postal crews on the heavy mail trains are not able to complete the distribution of mails assigned to that particular crew, and it has been found advisable to hold such undistributed mails at Cleveland to be distributed at this point before being sent on west."

This delay to westbound mails ranges from five to twenty-four hours, according to the postal clerks.

ANOTHER WAR STARTED IN Chicago This One Being

Among the Delivery Wagon Drivers—300 Out.

By United Press Wire.
Chicago, Dec. 5.—With every policeman in the city either on active or reserve duty in readiness to quell anticipated riots by striking garment workers, another labor war started here today which may prove fully as disastrous to the business of Chicago as the clothing war.

The new trouble is a strike of the delivery wagon drivers for the city's big department stores of whom more than 300 are now out with their number being added to hourly.

All of the men of the big stores are unionized and it is feared that if their demands for higher pay are not met, the Christmas season will be paralyzed. This would cost the merchants millions of dollars.

Violence began early. Within a short time after the men went out police were summoned on a riot call when a crowd of strikers with long sharp knives waylaid non-union teams and cut the harness of two horses to bits, threatening the drivers they interfered. By the time the police reserves arrived the slashers had fled.

When the stores opened today the drivers presented their claims to higher wages. In every case the demands were refused and as fast as their teams came in the drivers joined the strike. How far the trouble will go depends on the action of the individual employers, but, union delegates say, if the pay of the drivers is not raised, the strike will become general.

In all there are 15,000 members of the striking union which is a body fathered by the Employers' association, and is not affiliated with the Chicago Federation of Labor. The men demand an increase from their present pay of from $12 and $15 per week to $18.

Kentucky Wins Suit.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The state of Kentucky today won its suit against the Illinois Central railroad for $4,447, railroad franchise taxes, by a decision of the supreme court of the United States. The assessment was levied upon the Chesapeake and Ohio road, but the franchise came under the control of Harriman through a judicial sale. The suit was instituted by the state several years ago for taxes based on the assessment made in 1898.

The lower court found in favor of the state, notwithstanding the contention of the railroad management that the assessment was void and that the courts view that Edward H. Harriman, as owner of the railroad, was personally responsible for the taxes, was illegal.

Probably the greatest attraction the Sun has ever brought to Marion will appear the first three days of this week beginning at matinee today. Ratan and his song birds, the greatest juvenile song wonders. These two little tots are possessed with remarkable voices, and this act is recognized as one of the greatest novelty acts on the vaudeville stage. Others presented by the Sun are the Tiller masters, singers and dancers; James O'Neil, the perfect man and acrobatic wonder; the character comedian, Mr. Billy Thompson, representing six different characters, making the changes before the audience. The Sun gives three performances daily. New motion pictures received twice a week. Secure your seats early in order to get a good seat.

Must Be a Retrial.
Washington, Dec. 5.—The efforts of the department of justice to bring Fritz Augustus Heinze, the Montana miner, to trial for misappropriation of funds of the Mercantile National bank of New York, of which he was president, were successful before the supreme court of the United States today.

The supreme court's decision reverses the lower court, which quashed certain counts in the indictment against Heinze, and this means there must be a retrial of the case. The first indictment, returned in 1909, contains sixteen counts, of which the trial court quashed fifteen, which alleged Heinze had discounted notes in his own bank signed by Otto W. Heinze & Company, an insufficient security. The second indictment included all of these counts and the specific allegation that Heinze had discounted the notes to get money to manipulate the stock of the United Copper company.

Rossini's Jealousy.
Rossini was intolerably jealous of all his musical contemporaries, and particularly of Meyerbeer. In 1829 he heard "The Huguenots" and on listening to the performance from the beginning to the end he made up his mind that Meyerbeer had excelled him and determined to write no more operatic music. He lived until 1868, but produced nothing for the lyric stage. His thirty-two years of retirement were spent in the pleasures of a voluptuary. He was particularly fond of good eating and drinking and assembled about him the youngest and gayest society he could attract to his house.

"Do as Rome Does."
The saying "Do as Rome does" originated with St. Ambrose in the fourth century. It arose from a diversity of the observance of Saturday. The Milanese made it a feast, the Romans a fast. St. Ambrose, being asked what should be done in such a case, replied: "In matters of little consequence it is better to be guided by the general usage. When I am at Milan I do not fast on Saturday, but when I am at Rome I do as they do in Rome."

Congressional Committee.
Washington, Dec. 5.—The congressional committee today named to wait upon the president and inform him that congress has opened for business, was composed of Senators Cullom, Republican, Illinois, and Money, Democrat, Mississippi; Representatives Tawney, Republican, Minnesota, Caldwell, Republican, Kansas, and Champ Clark, Democrat, Missouri.

A Man Drowned.

London Dec. 5.—A German balloon that sailed from Munich, Saturday in an effort to reach Switzerland, landed today on one of the Orkney islands, off the north coast of Scotland. The balloon had a rough voyage and in crossing the North sea, it struck the water with such violence that one of the crew, a man named Metzger, was thrown from the basket and drowned. The other members of the crew, Distler and Joerdens, fled intensely from the cold and the jarring which the balloon received.

Naturalization papers were taken out today by Joseph Farrugio, the north Main street shoemaker. Mr. Farrugio is thirty-one years of age and has been in this country for the past seven years. He is a native of Italy. For a number of years he has operated a shoe repair shop in this city.
